3. It is requested that each [redacted] report be checked against the appropriate brief and that I be informed of any changes that the IAC agencies desire to be incorporated in the next revision of the briefs involved. This process should include deletion of questions that are considered to have been satisfactorily answered, alteration of questions that have been partially answered, and introduction of new questions that have arisen. It is hoped that this can be accomplished in accordance with the following tentative schedule:

BRIEFDESIRED CHANGES TO

25X1X7

25X1X7

..... 25 November 52
 ..... 2 December 52
 ..... 9 December 52
 ..... 16 December 52
 ..... 23 December 52
 ..... 30 December 52
 ..... 6 January 53
 ..... 13 January 53
 ..... 20 January 53
 ..... 27 January 53

(for revision will be done later.)

4. You will note that the relatively less complex briefs have been scheduled for earlier revision, whereas the more complicated briefs have been scheduled last, to permit as much time as possible for your review. If you feel that this schedule will not permit the necessary coordination in Washington, please advise us as soon as possible of necessary changes to make the schedule a realistic one from your standpoint.
